Dear Tamala McCoy:

RE: NOTARY PUBLIC-SPECIAL COMMISSION

Attached is your certificate of appointment, signed by the Governor, to the Office of Notary Public-Special Commission.

As provide by the Kentucky General Assembly, this appointment empowers you to perform notarial acts covering writings prepared for recordation in the Commonwealth.

This appointment is for a four-year term beginning September 23, 2011 and ending September 23, 2015. If you are currently a regular Notary Public, please note this is a separate commission and appointment, with a different expiration date. You are advised to keep your records separate, in order that you may renew either or both at the appropriate time.

It is important that you recognize that the issuance of this certificate of appointment does not in any way affect your holding of a regular notary appointment, nor does it automatically renew any other notary appointment you may hold.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script that reads "Elaine N. Walker".

Dear Tamala McCoy:

RE: Application NOTARY PUBLIC-SPECIAL COMMISSION

Please be certain you desire to be a special commission notary and not a state at large notary

This will acknowledge your application for appointment to the office of Notary Public-Special Commission.

A notary public state at large is a resident or nonresident of Kentucky (who must be principally employed in Kentucky) who is appointed to perform notarial acts within the state of Kentucky, but these documents can go to other states for recording.

A special commission notary is a resident or nonresident of Kentucky who is appointed by the Governor of Kentucky to perform notarial acts inside or outside this state covering documents to be recorded in this state only.

To complete the process, please take the enclosed oath of office before a Judge, Clerk of a Court, Notary Public, or Justice of the Peace (Magistrate) and have the oath administered. Upon our receipt of your executed oath of office, the Governor will issue your commission to office as a Notary Public-Special Commission.

Please note: The oath of office must be administered and the form completed and returned to our office before October 1, 2011. Please return to:
